

BOBBY MESSANO

Bobby Messano is a First Round Grammy Nominated guitarist,writer,singer producer who has had a 30 year career in the Music Industry. He has played on over 40 Major label and Indie Records and had 3 Solo Deals.(All with Major Distribution). His guitar playing has been heard on everything from the MTV jingle and the MTV Basement Tapes to Benny Mardones' smash hit "Into The Night" He has played on records by Clarence Clemmons, Franke & The Knockouts,Joe Lynn Turner and STARZ,and produced the 60's hit act, "THE SHADOWS OF KNIGHT". Live he has played guitar or been the music director for Steve Winwood , Lou Gramm, Robin Beck and more. His songs have been featured on CBS's The District, ABC's One Life To Live,VH1, MTV, CMT, Showtime and HBO. He has opened for many acts including Buddy Guy, Anson Funderburgh, The Allman Brothers, Foreigner and Bob Dylan. Bobby lives just outside of NYC and commutes to Nashville where he has played with Country artists Jimmy Wayne, Rodney Atkins, Steve Holy, Alecia Elliot and Anthony Michael James. When he is not on the road playing Contemporary Blues shows on his own, supporting the re-release of his Relativity CD "MESSANO" or playing with the legendary band STARZ, he teaches at The Paul Green School Of Rock. Bobby just appeared at ROCKLAHOMA in Pryor Oklahoma on July 9th and 10th .

PRS: ASCAP

Publisher:Prince Frog Music

Website: <http://www.bobbymessano.com>